

Christmas Isn't Cancelled!

With the countdown to Christmas well underway, it's time to start thinking about plans for this year's Christmas Celebrations! Although they will never replace the traditional Christmas Party, for this year at least, virtual Christmas parties will fill a gaping hole in family and workplace festivities.

Our mission for Christmas 2020 is simple; to ensure employees can come together in a social environment and enjoy the celebrations - even through such tough times!

It's for this reason that arrangeMY have come up with an incredible host of virtual Christmas Party options available to keep the festive spirit alive this year. We want to keep spirits lifted this December, so are confident that our amazing packages will be sure to impress!

Check out just some of the fantastic ideas we have on offer for your Christmas Party this year:

Jamie Oliver's Festive Cooking Classes

Staying in shouldn't get in the way of creating memorable experiences with friends, family and colleagues. Our hands-on virtual sessions are light-hearted, informal and fun. Ideal for virtual birthday parties, team-building days and Christmas parties.

Sign your group up for one of our live, interactive digital classes, and we'll send participants a recipe card and prep sheet, so everyone can be ready to go when they log into the session via Zoom.

Our chefs will walk you through the recipe steps and cook along with you, answering any questions you may have.

Champagne & Candlelight

Looking for something calmer this Christmas?

Bringing you a touch of class for your online event, join our musicians live from home at the grand piano by candlelight, top quality sound and streamed totally live.

Perfect for a drinks reception whilst you indulge in luxury truffles and sip a glass of champagne at home, all provided within the free gift box. This is a fully interactive event with live song requests, making your guests feel truly involved.

Brass, Beer & Bratwurst

Missing the mulled wine and beer bigger than your head? Have no fear as we're primed and ready to celebrate with an evening of Bavarian brilliance.

An ultimate party pack delivered to your door includes:

- 10 Litres of German Lager
- Traditional glass steins
- Genuine bratwurst sausage
- Bavarian fancy dress kit

And best of all... An online ticket to the hottest party in town - your own Oompah party band!

These lederhosen-donned legends perform Oompah arrangements of classic throwback anthems, from massive 80s hits and pumping electronica to 90s & noughties school disco favourites not forgetting all the Christmas classics.

Cocktails & Karaoke

All the cheesy classics and bangers from over the last 40 years - plus some beauts from the John Lewis adverts - our talented team of musicians will bring the party direct from their kitchen.

Totally customisable to your guest list and budget, this "build a band" style party package is perfect for any size of online event.

Interactive audience participation grabs your guests' attention and gets them involved as they pick out the soundtrack to their evening.

Virtual Connoisseur

Gin, wine, whiskey and more! A Virtual Connoisseur event can be the perfect way to celebrate your Christmas Party with your friends and colleagues!

Your team will be provided with your choice of party box which can be completely customised to your preferred tipples.

All party boxes come with a wide variety of activities which are sure to keep you team entertained throughout the night, with tasks such as a craft your own decoration for Charity, becoming a wine connoisseur or by testing yourselves with a series of Christmas challenges.

Live Music Quiz

Test your knowledge of the most popular tunes of the last 50 years - testing your musical knowledge every step along the way!

Like the traditional pub quiz our Compere for the evening will guide you through (10) rounds of totally varied musical questions - testing just how well you know your Beatles from your Beyoncé.

In between racking your brains trying to remember how many members made up that particular band or the title of that second album - you can just sit back & listen to our talented team of musicians entertain you.

Escape Rooms

Challenge yourself this Christmas with a virtual Escape Room. A choice of two different tests lie ahead which you will need to work closely with your colleagues to resolve.

Complete with a choice of pre-made cocktails delivered directly to your door, there is no better way to bond as a team!

These highly interactive events will be sure to immerse your guests into the Investigation, all hosted by a professional team of actors allowing you to get as close to the action as possible without leaving the comfort of your own home!

Magicians & Illusionists

Leave yourselves absolutely dazzled by these award-winning Magicians/Illusionists! Sit back and take in the marvel with your own personal pre-made cocktail which will be delivered straight to your door.

Performances are fully interactive and will leave your audience in awe. What's more, each performance can be made completely bespoke to fit the preference of your company.

A night to be truly remembers with some of the worlds leading talents leaving your guests roaring with laughter yet amazed at the live illusions in front of their own eyes.

Join a Christmas Party

None of these options take your fancy? Not to worry as we are even offering the opportunity to join a traditional Christmas Party for a night of must-see action, right from your living room!

Book your space as Pat Sharp kicks off the night with FUN HOUSE AT YOUR HOUSE. A live and interactive game where 'there's big prizes to be won'
